Alderman Chris Croatt (District 14) 22:07

Okay, moving to our information items, which is a list of establishments that have had demerit point violations, all 80-point violations all related to selling alcohol to a minor. Anything from APD that you'd like to talk to in regards to this list? Lieutenant Nagel?

Lieutenant Adam Nagel (Police) 22:27

I think everything on that list that you received would be from our alcohol sting operations that we had about a month to a month and a half ago.

Alderman Chris Croatt (District 14) 22:37

Okay. It looks...

Lieutenant Adam Nagel (Police) 22:40

Two more coming on top of that?

Unknown Person 22:41

Yes.

Alderman Chris Croatt (District 14) 22:44

It looks like a couple of restaurants but some other convenience stores. Okay. Moving on, unless there's questions on that. Alder Schultz?

Alderman Alex Schultz (District 9) 22:53

Just curious if any of these have any more points occurred accrued before this particular stack of violations? Which bar?

Alderman Chris Croatt (District 14) 23:04

Do any of these have additional violations that would put them at a higher level than 80? Uh Clerk Lynch? Director three, go ahead.

Alderman Alex Schultz (District 9) 23:13

Thank you.

Clerk Kami Lynch 23:14

So, the total points next is that—that's their total point so far. So, they are just at the 80 point.

Alderman Chris Croatt (District 14) 23:19

Okay. Okay.

Unknown City Attorney 23:20

Can you address that then? District One, briefly.

Alderson Chris Croatt (District 14) 23:26

It's on should be on.

Unknown City Attorney 23:28

There's an oddity with this particular kind of violation, where they are assessed 80 points, but whether or not they can be revoked or suspended based on in part, this would require another violation of the same type within one year. So, the points are there, but they may not be counted depending on what the subsequent violation would be. So, they're in a weird nether zone, and that's by statute.

Alderson Chris Croatt (District 14) 23:56

Okay.

Alderson Alex Schultz (District 9) 23:57

Thank you for that clarification.

Unknown City Attorney 24:00

Essentially, by statute, they get a freebie a year.

Alderson William Siebers (District 1) 24:03

Oh, my goodness.

Alderson Chris Croatt (District 14) 24:05

Interesting.
